

Katherine Chang Liu

The Katherine Chang Liu Mentoring Workshop is a unique and special opportunity to have one of Fine Arts highly acclaimed professional review and assess your work and give you feedback.

The workshop sessions begin with a slide show each morning. In the slide show and lecture, Katherine will present the work of many known artist and will point out the features of the paintings with regard to design, light, color, etc.

During the course of the week, each participant will bring in eight to ten of their paintings for evaluation. Katherine will spend twenty minutes with each person reviewing their body of work and giving them feedback. Katherine will try to provide answers for all your questions. The interviews take place in an outside room without interruption. You will have Katherine's full attention.

While others are being interviewed, you are free to use the workshop time as your studio time and paint whatever you choose. The paintings will be displayed on the last day of the workshop and Katherine will talk a bit about each painting and its artist.

This workshop is very professional and is focused on giving the participants an opportunity to get the opinion of a well known signature artist and advisor with the intent of giving you feedback about your work and how to take it to the next level. It is a very positive learning experience.
